THIS is to certify the publick, that I Bartly Clarke of South-Carolina, planter, having been afflicted with that terrible distemper the cancer, in my lip, for the space of fifteen years, under the care of several eminent physicians, which has cost me a large sum of money, but to no purpose, until I was recommended to that famous doctor Kemmens, now living in Malden-Lane, in the city of New-York—by Capt. Charles Chadwick of New-London, who was cured of the like distemper by him, almost three years ago; all which time he was persuading me to apply to this doctor Kemmens, until I consented, and am now effectually cured; which was done in the space of four weeks, by the application of his famous plaster; in which time I have also seen three different persons cured of the cancer by him—The names of whom, are Daniel Davis of Satacut, on Long-Island, who, had his whole under lip taken away, and in the space of a fortnight closed it up with sound flesh, so that it scarcely left a scar—Likewise Captain Rite of Bermuda, and Mrs. Nancy Curshaw of Long-Island, who,
I am able to testify, were effectually cured; But, as the publick is greatly injured by the report of some malicious persons, who say that the cancers taken out by the said doctor Kemmens returns again, which I have heard also; but, I am able to prove it to be false; and if any person will take the trouble to call upon me at the house of doctor Kemmens, (during my stay, which will be until Sunday the second day of August) I shall fully satisfy him of what I have here affirmed, and then shall return home (God willing) effectually cured. Therefore, out of regard for the publick, and to do justice to the doctor, I recommend all persons to him that are afflicted with such distemper.

MACHINE to dress FLOUR.

THE King has been pleased to grant unto JOHN MILNE, of Manchester, his royal letters patent, for all his colonies in America, &c. for the sole making and vending his new invented machines, for the dressing the flour of wheat, &c. which machines are found to be of great utility by all persons who have them in use; they not only make the flour look better, but also make it use better, as they make it more lively, and will dispatch three times as much business, in the same time, as the common method of bolting with cloths, and they will do that business at one operation, which, to be done with cloths, requires several, for they will dress fine flour, two seconds and three seconds, and clean the bran at one operation; or they may make two sorts, or only one sort of flour, by moving the partitions within the box just as the person pleases who attends it; and considering their duration are much cheaper than cloths.
Also, his new invented machines for cleaning wheat, barley, &c. which takes out seeds, dust, &c. and will break and destroy smut-balls, and give a brightness and lustre to the grain.

The said machines are to be sold by JOHN MILNE, and Co. at their house in Manchester; or by applying to James Milne (son of the said John Milne) who is now at Mr.
Needham's, opposite Beekmans-Slip, New-York.

Just IMPORTED, in the last Vessels from England,
A fresh COLLECTION of the above-mentioned MACHINES.

To the PUBLICK.
HAVING had an experience of Mr. Milne's new invented patent machines, for bolting flour and cleaning wheat, at my mill, where they are now to be seen at work, at Long-Island, I think it my duty to declare, that they are a curious, expedition, and elegant contrivance, and what, in my opinion, will answer every purpose for which they are designed, and likewise be of great service to the publick.

JACOB SEEBING, Jun.

To the PUBLICK.
I think it incumbent on me, for the good of the community, and particularly of those who are manufacturers of flour, to declare, that upon trial I have found Mr. Milne's machine answer the purposes of bolting, for which they are intended, infinitely better than the old method of doing it with cloths, as they really bolt three times as quick without the least exaggeration, and are a very ingenious contrivance.

WARSAW, April 19.

WE are very anxious here to know whether the circumstances mentioned in a letter from Petricau, dated the 14th inst.
have any foundation: This letter informs us, "That Marshal Zarembo had been three days with the Prussian General, at his head quarters at Kalisch, with whom he had had several conferences;" in the mean time the Prussians seize all the confederates that fall in their way, and extend themselves farther and farther into the Palatinates of Kalisch, Posania, Inowroclaw, and Cujavia. The general opinion is, that the Prussians have views on Polish Prussia, and we are not without fears of that sort here; and what helps to confirm our fears is, a letter handed about, dated Konigsberg, March 21, mentioning the following particulars relating to the intended claim, viz. that it is proposed that Polish Prussia shall be regarded hereafter as part of the Kingdom of Prussia, in the same manner as in the times of the Teutonic Knights; that the Bishopric of Warmia shall be secularized, and the Bishop and Chapter receive pensions; that Danzic and Thorn shall be declared free cities; that religion shall be regulated in the same manner as in Prussian Silesia; and that 30,000 Prussian troops shall be always cantoned in the said province.

We have received advice, that a body of confederates has found means to pierce the Prussian Cordon of troops near Kalisch, and had fallen in with a convoy of 300 carriages, laden with grain, which the Prussians had collected in Poland, and that, after breaking the carriages to pieces, and destroying the corn, they made their Escape.

Cricow, April 30. The Russians took possession of the castle the 26th of this month, and the confederates, in number about 720, besides 44 Officers, came out the same day as Prisoners of war.

Warsaw, May 2. The Prussians have driven all the confederates out of Great Poland. It is reported here, that the Austrian troops that have orders to enter Poland, amount to 40,000 men. If credit may be given to public accounts, there is a triple alliance on foot between the Courts of Peterburgh, Berlin and Vienna.

Genoa, May 6. Advices just received here bring a confirmation that the Barbary vessels are cruising in the neighbouring seas, and that four Corsairs have sailed out from the Port of Tunis to attack the Christians. For this reason our government hath equipped two galleys, which will sail with the first fair wind on a cruise against the Barbarians.

Hamburgh, May 12. Letters from Copenhagen advise, that his Majesty has just signed a Testamentary Disposition, concerning the administration of the State, if his Majesty should die before the Hereditary Prince arrives at the proper age to take on himself the Reins of Government.

Lunenburg, May 12. The Queen of Denmark is expected soon in this country. Her court is already arrived here from Copenha-

Amsterdam, May 18. We can advance nothing with certainty as to the numbers lost in the late fire; about 20 have been dug out of the ruins, but so defaced, as not to be known. Many more were suffocated, and others desperately hurt, in attempting to get out. More are digging out daily.

L O N D O N.

May 12. Letters from the Hague mention, that the States General, on account of the critical situation of affairs on the continent, had given orders for the barrier towns of the republic to be augmented with an addition of 14,000 troops.

The cantons of Switzerland, which was reckoned the most populous country for its extent in Europe, is almost depopulated by the number of Swiss hired by the different powers on the continent, which are said to amount to near 113,000 men.

Extract of a letter from the Hague, May 5.

"The Governor of Surinam has represented to the directors of the colony, that unhappily the natives of the country have invaded and demolished some of the distant plantations; and that, for want of troops, he was not able to quell them.—This news has occasioned a great deal of consternation, and the directors are taking the necessary measures to remedy the evil complained of."

A treaty of marriage is actually on the tapis, and will, it is thought, be speedily concluded, between Robert Morris, Esq; late Secretary to the Bill of Rights, and Miss Wilkes, daughter to the celebrated patriot. This union, it is imagined, will be productive of the greatest felicity to all the parties, as Mr. Morris is a favourite amongst the ladies, Miss Wilkes will have a large fortune, and the patriot stands much in need of a spirited advocate, all his old adherents having deserted him. Add to this, that all the parties are so remarkable for Beauty, that they attract the admiration of every beholder.

A vessel lately arrived at Cadix from the Caracca coast in America, has brought advice that the inhabitants of that country are in open rebellion, and that they had armed all the negroes they could possibly get together, amounting to 6 or 7000 men, to support themselves. The King of Spain, on notice of the above, gave Orders immediately for a new body of troops to be embarked for that country with all expedition.

From the same hand we are told, that the Governor of the Spanish island of Luconia, in the East-Indies, has wrote to Madrid for a fresh supply of troops, to keep the Luconian settlements in subjection.

They write from Berlin, that his Prussian Majesty had given orders for paying off the interest of the monies advanced by the English and Dutch on the credit of the province of Silesia, in the Year 1733.

They write from Copenhagen, that a second execution is expected to take place there soon, when Mess. Falkenschild, Hesselberg, and some other State Prisoners, it is supposed will suffer."

May 11. It is confidently reported, that a royal order is dispatched for two regiments being speedily sent from North-America to the island of St. Vincent, in order to aid Sir William Young, and the other Commissioners for the sale of Crown lands, in the service of taking and selling of all those lands which have been hitherto claimed or possessed by the Carabes there, and who opposed the said Commissioners, under the pretence of the Crown having no right to take from them, nor to dispose of any part of such lands without their own consent.

War Office, May 12. Orders are dispatched to Lieut. General Gage, to collect all the troops from the different garrisons and cantonments in America at New-York, from whence they are destined to meet a considerable naval force in a certain latitude and proceed upon an expedition, which may strike terror to some refractory Northern Powers; transports are sent to Newfoundland to carry the three companies belonging to the 9th regiment to the general rendezvous at New-York; those companies are replaced by as many companies of Marines, who are for the future to garrison that island.

May 19. We hear that a Board of General Officers is to sit at Whitehall this day, to consider the abolition of the Ranks of Major and Captain Lieutenant in the army, and to report thereon to his Majesty.

On Saturday the officers of the foot guards signed a memorial to his Majesty, representing that the abolition of the above ranks would be a very great injury to them.

General Strode, who was lately tried by a general court martial, is acquitted.

Extract of a letter from Paris, dated May, 4.

"Letters from the Isle of France mentions a frightful scene lately acted there. the Chevalier de la Motte Grassard, Lieutenant-Colonel of the regiment royal Comtois, having displeased the officers of his corps, 18 of them joined in a resolution to rid themselves of him. Accordingly they, in consequence, put him into a sack, and flung him into the sea. The Governor, informed of this fact, had them all taken up, and embarked them for France, guarded by a detachment of Grenadiers, in order to be tried for that crime."

From the very conciliating temper of the heads of the present committee on East India affairs, as well as the occasional absence of some of the warmest members, it is generally thought this mighty enquiry is likely to terminate as importantly as the celebrated one last session of Parliament, on the cause of the riots.

Ever since the above enquiry, a total change has happened in all the departments of a noble Nabob's family. His lady seldom appears in public, and when she does, instead of that profusion of jewels, which, let her go where she would, always declared her the best dressed woman in company, she now appears totally unornamented. The servants are likewise seldom seen in their laced liveries, and little Kam, the Ferret, has even been dismantled of his valuable pearl necklace.

They write from Lisbon, that the King of Portugal had just published an edict concerning the English traders to Lisbon and Oporto, from which our merchants entertain the most sanguine hopes.

The same letters add, that 14 more Jesuits, said to be concerned in the attempt on the King's life, had been put to the torture, but not confessing, were put to death the 20th ult.

May 20. Yesterday the second reading of the dissenters bill came on, according to order, in the upper house, and after the same had been read, it was moved to commit the bill, whereupon a debate arose, which lasted about six hours, and the house divided; 23 for the commitment, and 73 against it; upon calling for proxies, 4 were for, and 29 against; so that upon the whole, 27 were for, and 102 against it.

Yesterday the order of the day was read in the lower house, for the report on Mr. Fox's marriage bill, which being done, it was moved that the bill, with the amendments, should be engrossed, upon which the house divided, and upon casting up the numbers, there appeared 34 for the bill, and 92 against it; notwithstanding the stroke was severe, no man ever appeared more cool upon the occasion than the little honourable gentleman; to have looked at him when he left the house, you must have thought he came from a wedding and not from a burial; but he did his best, and what can a man do more?

Lord Townshend, we hear, has lately transmitted here an account of his proceedings in Ireland within this month last, which is so pleasing to administration, that they are determined to continue him as Viceroy for some time longer at any rate.

It was sometimes ago said, that immediately after the breaking up of the Parliament, many changes would take place in the ministry; but from pretty good authority we are told, that every man will keep his place, as every man, since the above rumour, has used his utmost endeavours in Parliament to ingratiate himself into the favour of one or two men, who do just as they please.

The migrations of such numbers of sober, useful hands in the linen manufactory in the north of Ireland, is likely to produce some very salutary measures in that kingdom; by the serious representations lately transmitted here from the Lord Lieutenant, which we are informed are actually under consideration, and have of late been the subject of great debate among the premier, and his faithful coadjutors, who are strenuous, it seems, in recommending lenity to the promoters and most active in the late riots, which has so much distressed that valuable branch of trade, the Irish linen manufactory.

A correspondent says, that from the highest to the lowest order of patriots, nothing but duplicity has been practised on the people: Lord Chatham, in the beginning of 1772, assured us, that in six months we should be a province to France; Mr. Wilkes told us, that we were absolutely undone; and Mr. Britain publicly accused the ministry of setting Portsmouth-dock on fire: Britain, however, is the only one of the three who has had honesty enough to acknowledge his secret motives; and his example is therefore recommended by our correspondent to the two other celebrated characters.

One of the last wishes expressed by Britain at the place of execution was, that the people, from the imposition they had experienced in his story, might for the future be less credulous, and less easily persuaded that those who had most to gain by the happiness of the nation, should be most industrious to labour for its destruction.

On Monday the Right Hon. the Lord Chancellor decided the cause of the Stanwyx family, which was an equal division of estate to the three several claimants.

June 1. On Friday last the Hon. Col. Fitzroy kissed his Majesty's hand at St. James's, on his promotion to the rank of a General.

Advices are received from Stockholm, that couriers are daily passing between that Court, France, and Prussia, and that the Swedish Minister at Copenhagen had received orders to use all his interest and eloquence to back the negotiations of those two Courts with his Danish Majesty.

We hear that Colonel Luttrell, on account of the strenuous support he gave to the Cabinet-maker's Petition, will be made a freeman of the Joiner's Company. Although there is great propriety in this measure, yet it will be warmly opposed by Mr. Wilkes, who looks with a jealous eye on the growing popularity of the Colonel.

June 2. Yesterday morning about five o'clock a courier arrived express at St. James's from Sir Robert Keith at Copenhagen. The letters were sent to Kew.

All the latest accounts received from the continent seem to agree that another Revolution has taken place at Copenhagen. That the Queen Caroline Matilda is restored to the Throne, and the Queen Dowager and her Son had retired from the capital in great precipitation. Some of the foreign prints add, that this great event would have been brought about long ago, if Sir Robert Keith could have got to the speech of the King; but it may be doubted whether any thing effectual could have been done till after the execution of Struensee and Brandt, who, whether they were really objects of justice or not, were certainly objects of envy and jealousy. The Queen's friends were not likely to stir while their operations might be of advantage to those unfortunate victims. [Improbable.]

It is said that two regiments are ordered from America to the Caribbee Islands, in order to quell the Savages, the troops already in those stations not being sufficient for that purpose.

June 3. The last hand is just put to an important Treaty between the Crowns of England, Petersburg, and the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel.

They write from Paris that the French Court had issued orders for fitting out at Rochelle and Brest, eight ships of the line, five frigates and ten transports, which last are to mount from six to twelve guns each.

Capt. Turner of the Carolina Packet, who is arrived in the river from South Carolina, on the 21st of April, spoke with the Eagle Packet from Fal-mouth off Charles Town bar; and on the 7th of May, in lat. 41, 36, long. 40, 33, spoke with the Nancy, Capt. Young, from Charles Town, bound to Lisbon, out 18 days, all well.

Last Saturday se'nnight Capt. Macbride sailed with two frigates for Denmark, to bring away the divorced Queen, and land her in the Elector of Hanover's dominions. She is to have a pension of 5000l. per annum from Denmark, and another of 8000l. from England, to enable her to keep a Court, and a stud of horses.

It has been reported during the last three or four days, that Colonel Luttrell will, this day, in the House of Commons, pretend to be conscience stricken, and desire to vacate his seat. [He failed in his attempt with the Cabinet-makers.]—Ibid.

A few days after the arrival of the Duke of Gloucester, Lady Waldegrave (as she has been hitherto called) obtained his permission to write a letter to her father, Sir Edward Walpole, acknowledging her marriage with the Duke. In her letter she says, "That they were married on the 6th day of September 1766; but that they have no children." There are many circumstances which make it believed the King has not been ignorant of this marriage. Some time ago, when the Duke of Gloucester gave a grand entertainment to the Royal Family, Lady Waldegrave performed the honours of the house. The Queen showed her particular marks of attention. Either the Queen knew she was Dutches of Gloucester, or the Duke was unpardonably indifferent to produce any other woman before her Majesty. The Duke is extremely acquiescing to the King, and takes particular care never to oppose his royal will. This clearly shews, that a clandestine marriage is not disagreeable at Buckingham-house. The contrast is striking.

The brother, who has spirit to avow his marriage to the nation, is not to be forgiven. But the brother who keeps his marriage a secret, and may thereby occasion a contested succession to the Crown, is carefully promoted, has a grand Levee, and, if Colonel Clinton, says true, is very soon to be made a Commander in chief. For the Queen of Denmark, the public has been attempted to be stirred in her behalf. For the Princess of Brunswick, when come to take her last leave of her mother, a common lodging was provided in Pall mall. This is vice rewarded, and virtue punished. Lady Waldegrave's letter, it is obvious, was written with a view of justifying her character to her family, her friends, and the world. It was impossible she should approve of ranking, in their opinion, in the same line with the Italian Arumpet, which the Duke, her husband, has so long not only kept under his roof, but under her nose. However, to rob her of this consolation, for matrimony is not the fashion now, Mr. Le Grand is running about in all parts of the town, assuring every person he meets, Lady Waldegrave is not married to the Duke of Gloucester. Is then a state of concubinage more honourable than matrimony, in Mr. Le Grand's eyes? And do the King and Queen think so!—What can be more cruel?—Lady Waldegrave is ill.—Ibid.

A correspondent writes, you may inform your readers that the following matches are very much talked of at the Court end of the town.

Lady A. Carpenter, daughter to Lord Tresconell, to Lord Pigot.

The Hon. Miss Egerton, daughter to Mr. Egerton, to the Duke of Devonshire.

Miss Hetham, daughter to Sir Charles Hotham, to Mr. Inglesfeld.

The Hon. Miss Vernon, daughter to Lord Vernon, to the Earl of Lincoln.

Lady Mary Hill, daughter to Lord Hillsborough, to Earl Northampton.

Sir Edward Walpole has acquainted Lord North of his daughter's avowal of her marriage.

June 6. They write from St. Petersburg, that the differences which have so long subsisted between the Empress and the Duchy of Holstein, are at length accommodated, through the interposition of his Prussian Majesty, and the Russian troops are ordered to quit the Duke's territories.

It is said that orders have been sent to the Russian Admirals, to prevent any European frigates or other armed vessels, from conveying merchantmen laden with ammunition or provisions passing the Dardanelles.

They write from Gibraltar, that four Russian men of war of 60 guns are now lying in the bay, on their return to Europe.

Orders are said to have been sent to his Majesty's Consul at Algiers, to renew their Treaty with the Dey for five years.

Orders are given for four frigates to cruise between Gibraltar and Ceuta, for the better protection of the English merchantmen in the Mediterranean.

It is talked that a conference will be proposed and take place between the two houses.

A great man has asked leave to go to Ireland, and been refused;—(thank Heaven (says a correspondent) a little man may go where he pleases without permission. Another correspondent says, if he had been refused for reasonable a request as that of permission to go to Ireland, he would have taken French leave.

The supporters of the bill of rights are not half so good a security to the people of this country against the encroachments of the Crown, as the continuation of the Pretender's family. For some time past it has been expected that the Chevalier would never marry, and that the race would consequently become extinct. What was the consequence to this island? The present family, like every other family that has been, or will be, imagining all danger of a competitor to the throne at an end, invaded our rights by force, fraud and corruption. The ferment was accordingly great, and even now waits only for an opportunity to exert itself. The Pretender's hopes revived, and he married at the instigation of our rivals and enemies, who hope one day to find the Stuart line useful tools.

On Wednesday, the first day of term, rules to plead were given in the case of Mr. Alderman Townsend against the collectors of the land-tax who distrained on him, and issue will be joined therein this present term.

The Empress of Russia has peremptorily demanded of the Senate of Sweden, by her Minister at Stockholm, several of her subjects who have settled in Sweden; and has also caused a general pardon to be proclaimed to such who shall immediately return to her dominions.

HALIFAX, June 30.

The Sloop Frigate, John Burrows, master, from Philadelphia, which unfortunately ran on the reef of rocks off Point Pleasant the 16th instant, after several unsuccessful attempts to get her off, was undertaken by Malachy Salter, Esq; under whose direction and care, she was weighed and brought to town yesterday; she is a fine Bermuda built sloop of 120 tons, and has received but very little damage.

BOSTON, July 27.

A detachment from the 64th regiment at Halifax, arrived here on Friday evening last.

Last Saturday Capt. Smith arrived here in a large schooner from Halifax, having on board two companies of the 64th regiment, which, with their baggage, were immediately landed at Castle William.—The remainder of the regiment are shortly expected.

The 14th regiment are all embarked on board the transports, and we shall sail from hence this day.

PHILADELPHIA, July 29.

Extract of a Letter from London, dated May 20.

"A rumour of war prevailed pretty generally some time ago; but, if we may judge from circumstances, without regarding newspaper intelligence, the requisitions made by Great Britain have been complied with by the Court of Denmark, and the idea of hostilities vanishes."

Capt. Barry from St. Kitts, the 23d inst. in lat. 56, 35, long. 72, 30. spoke Capt. William Reed, in a ship from New-York for Augustine, out 3 days, all well.

Capt. Barry left at St. Kitts, the Captains Dean and Seymour, in sloops from New-York, and Capt. Bennett, in a schooner from Wilmington, on Christians.

A few weeks ago, about twenty Indians, in passing through Annapolis to Annapolis, in Maryland, in order to complain to the Governor of the encroachments of the back settlers on their territories, took up their lodgings in a gentleman's barn, when the Christian inhabitants arose in the night-time and massacred every one of them.—Tell it not in Gath, neither publish it in the streets of Askelon!

AUGUST 3. We have the pleasure to acquaint our readers, that the proprietors of the China Manufactory in this city, have lately made experiments with some clay presented to them by a gentleman of Charles-Town, South-Carolina, which produces China superior to any brought from the East-Indies, and will stand the heat beyond any kind of crucibles ever yet made.

Last Wednesday evening about 8 o'clock, an old lady, Mrs. Eleanor Barram, (mother to Messrs. Alexander and George Barram, of this city merchants) was standing at her own gate in Front-street, Southwark, when one Philip Hines, a worthless fellow, who had been formerly publicly punished for misbehaviour, ran out of his house, opposite to her's, with an axe in his hand, swearing he would kill the first person he saw, and coming up to her, immediately, with the pole of the axe, struck her a violent blow on the head, which sunk her to the ground, covered with blood; and her life is almost despaired of. The villain immediately fled, but was taken and secured. There was no other motive for this cruel action, but that he had just been quarrelling with a woman with whom he lived in a disorderly way.

ALBANY, July 27.

Last Monday afternoon his Excellency Governor Tryon dined with the Mayor and Corporation of this City, at Mr. Richard Cartwright's tavern: And on Tuesday his Excellency gave an elegant entertainment at the same place, to the Mayor and Corporation, the Clergy, several gentlemen of the Law and the Officers of the Militia.

On Friday his Excellency, and his Lady, accompanied by Sir John Johnson, who arrived here on Thursday, and several other Gentlemen and Ladies, set out for Schenectady, escorted by the Albany Troop of Cavalry.

His Excellency was received at Schenectady by his Majesty's Justices of the Peace; and upwards of 800 of the Militia of that Township, under Arms, with whole fine Appearance, we hear, his Excellency was much pleased.

NEW-YORK, August 6.

Of the Passengers with Captain Couper, mentioned in our last, were Captain Standish and Lieut. Abbot, of the Royal Artillery; Lieut. Dixon. Ensigns Kelly, Hallam and Brown, of the Royal Americans; Ensign Barrow of the 16th; Captain Lang, Captain Berrien, &c.

Captain Stringham, of the Schooner Nancy, from this Port, for St. Augustine, writes his Owners here, that on the 24th of May, eight Days after his Departure from Sandy-Hook, he discovered a Plot that had been laid by a Mulatto Fellow, and another Seaman, to murder himself, his Mate, and Ensign Maunsel, and then carry the Vessel with the Cargo, to a Neutral Port. It was to have been put in Execution between two and four in the Morning; and but a few Minutes before the fatal Hour, the two Villains were secured, and confessed the whole Matter.

Captain Kennedy in 15 Days from St. Martins, informs us, That a few Days before he sailed from that Place, Advice was received there, that two Spanish Men of War, one of 70 Guns, and the other of 50, were cast away on the Island of Anguilla, and both entirely lost: They were bound from Cadix for Porto-Rico, and the 50 Gun Ship had a Quantity of Dry Goods on Board.

Sunday the 26th Ult. Captain Foy was married to Miss HANNAH VAN HORNE, Daughter to JOHN VAN HORNE, Esq; of Killis-Hall.

Saturday last the Supreme Court ended here, when Felix Meigs, of Connecticut, received Sentence of Death, and is to be executed the 11th of September next, having been tried and found guilty of passing a Quantity of our last Loan Office Money, knowing the same to be Counterfeit.

The Circuit Courts are appointed to be held as follow.—

At the Court-House at the White Plains, for the County of West Chester, on Tuesday the 1st Day of September.—

At the Court-House at Jamaica, Queen's County, on Tuesday the eighth Day of September next. At the Court-House at Flatbush, King's County, on Tuesday the 15th Day of September next. At the Court-House at Southold, for the County of Suffolk, on Tuesday the 22d Day of Sept. next.

Frontiers of Silesia, April 29. We are informed by a Polish officer arrived from Eperies, that the Sieur Roudrick had surprised and beaten near Jaroslaw a detachment of two hundred Russians, who were conducting to Leopold eighty Confederate prisoners.

Madrid, May 5. They write from Cadiz, that the brothers U—, eminent merchants of that city, had stopt payment, and that this failure is estimated at 3,000,000 piasters.

Grona, May 6. Four gallies are sailed from the port of Tunis on a cruise amongst the Christians.

Vienna, May 14. A manifesto is in the press, which will make known the motives that have induced the Court to send troops into Poland.

Cracovia, May 13. We have received advice that 26,000 Austrian troops are ordered to be in readiness to enter Poland. Express orders are given to the Austrian line not to suffer any of the Confederates to pass the frontiers, nor even to come within two miles of them; and all who do pass them will be taken and sent to Kasechau. It is also strictly forbid to furnish them with any provisions. Field Marshal Ellerhazy having met, near Bartfeld, Prince Martin Lubomirski, and Marshal Mieczynski, ordered them to retire; but the first not being willing to comply, they were forced to fire upon him, in consequence of which they both retreated to Teschen.

Amsterdam, May 19. A printed letter is circulated here, dated the 15th instant, in which a lady of distinction, after deploring the melancholy consequences of the fire which happened at the theatre of this city on the 11th instant, gives her friend a list of the persons who perished by that melancholy event, the number of which amounts to thirty-one or thirty-two; among whom was the Sieur James de Neuville van Lennep, who offered 50,000 florins to those who would assist in saving the life of his wife.

Lord North declares, that as his scheme for reducing the national debt has met with so much approbation from parliament, as to be adopted without opposition, he will have some scheme ready for consideration against the next session, which, now that national unanimity is happily restored, must be highly serviceable to the kingdom.

We are assured that several societies and clubs of gentlemen have come to a resolution to admit no Nabobs into their company; struck with the dirty transgressions that daily come to light before the Committee.

The public expect great entertainment from Mr. Foot's new comedy, called the Nabob; such is the present abhorrence of Eastern Adventurers.

It is asserted with confidence, that the first punishment to be inflicted on such Asiatic delinquents as are in the House, is expulsion—Some have even added the pillory to this animadversion on their crimes.

The detestation shown by all ranks of people against the cruel plunderers of the East, does great honour to the humanity of the nation.—We hear that the ladies have so far taken up the part of the oppressed human nature, that they are resolved not to dance at any public place with the Nabobs. It is thought that the delinquents will have the prudence to keep away from public entertainments till the present storm is over.

The present luxury of the times may be easily estimated from the masquerade of last Thursday evening. Two thousand persons, at two guineas each, make four thousand guineas; and if we rate the price of all the various dresses at three guineas each (the money demanded at Tavistock-street for the use only of a domino) we shall immediately see that 20,000 guineas, besides the expense of chair and coach hire, were lavished upon the entertainment of a single night, while our poor are absolutely perishing for bread in various parts of the kingdom.

By the last Dutch mails we are told, that the Russian board of Admiralty at Cronstadt and Revel, are preparing a large Squadron of men of War and frigates. Their destination is not yet known.

The Brazil fleet, consisting of sixteen ships, under convoy of two men of war, arrived at Lisbon the eleventh of last month, with rich cargoes of 250 octaves of diamonds, and upwards of five millions of gold in crusades.

A letter from an officer in the Portuguese service, dated Lagos, in the kingdom of Algarve in Portugal, April 27, mentions, that he was just arrived there after a month's detachment at Faro, at which latter place several earthquakes had happened at intervals from the 6th of April till the 20th, which had greatly distressed and terrified the inhabitants, who had quitted their habitations; that several of the churches, and almost all the houses are damaged; and that the better sort of people live in tents.

It is reported, that Mr. Sheriff Bull intends to offer himself as a candidate for serving the office of Lord Mayor for the ensuing year. It is said, that there is an act in force, by which a freeman of the city of London, who has served the office of sheriff, though no alderman, is eligible to the mayoralty, if his fellow citizens think proper to choose him.

Bristol, May 16. The following paragraph is a true and perfect copy of part of the confession of Jonathan Britain, the evening before his execution in the gaol of Newgate, Bristol, at his own request, and by him dictated, and carefully taken down in writing by Thomas Lawrence, of the White-Lion, Bristol; (who penned his trial) and Henry Burgum, of the same city; pewterer; in the presence of Mr. Arthur Sandall, and Mr. Thomas Jones, May 14, 1772; who all upon their oaths have proved the authenticity of the same.

I declare now, that I know no more about the fire at Portsmouth, than any other person whatsoever; 'tis true, I was apprehensive that I might be detected for some one or more of the several cheats and forgeries committed by me; on this account I wrote several treasonable letters to the King.—I followed his Majesty from St. James's to Buckingham-house, intruded myself close upon him, on purpose to be observed by him, on account of the treasonable letters (which I kept copies of) I expected a reward would be offered, for the sake of which I was prepared to swear any man's life away as the writer; tho' really wrote by himself. I, in fact, never meant to shoot or hurt the person of his Majesty. I never from my heart harboured so much as an intention towards it. True I had a loaded pistol in my pocket at the time of following him, which my fears dictated as a guard to me, and for no other purpose. I have been guilty of no forgeries that would affect my life, but the four mentioned in the indictments at my trial. In London I laid the plan of my being concerned in the fire at Portsmouth. The pardon appeared in the Gazette the day I went to Reading, there I was taken up. I declare once more I had no accomplice. In prison I sent for the Gazette where the pardon was printed, I applied for it to the secretaries of state; the under secretaries came down, and brought with them the treasonable letters, of which I produced copies.—That increased their suspicions.—I gave them directions to go and take up two of my pretended accomplices, which they endeavoured doubtless; but there were no such to be found. Now it was that repeated letters in print, and by the post, all of my own writing, came to me, offering rewards if I would do so and so. If I would hold my tongue, and what not.

By this means the whole kingdom was alarmed. The ministry slighted my information. Thus therefore I reasoned with myself, I shall now certainly be hanged, let the case be as it will: I will now try a deeper scheme; I will write against the ministry; I will accuse them of course, and spread it through the nation; thousands will receive it as truth; and who can tell, thought I, but somebody or other may bail me out; and by that means I may save my life. Now what sort of satisfaction can I receive from reflecting upon it! I most unjustly accused the Right Hon. Lord Mansfield of being a traitor to his King and country, in the Whifperer, and other inflammatory papers! I falsely accused Lord Halifax of receiving bribes; and Lord Falconbridge, being a catholic, of harbouring one of the supposed parties concerned in Portsmouth fire. Now the papers and the public can run with it like wild-fire from one to another, which made me more assiduous in my studies; for every night and every day was my tongue and pen employed in villifying, traducing and defaming the ministry; for this particular circumstance, their taking Dudley and bringing him to a public hearing, and not me, for the fire at Portsmouth. This confirmed and increased the suspicions of the public—and from that time to this, the reality of it hath remained a matter of doubt.

EPITAPH on JONATHAN BRITAIN:

Written by himself, the day before his execution.
W HEN thou art told—"here BRITAIN'S ashes lie!"
Suppress thy censure, thou thyself art frail.
Would'st thou avoid a FALL like his! Then tread
His latest paths. So will that God who all His sins absolved, forgive thee thine; and crown
Thy end, like his, with everlasting peace.

D U B L I N, May 12.

The following extract is taken from the proceedings of a most respectable assembly, May 2.

Lord Kildare presented to the house a petition of sundry merchants, importers of flaxseed, setting forth the hardships they laboured under from being obliged to answer for the growth of such seed, since they cannot possibly do more than purchase the best they can get, and cannot insure the changes of weather, difference of soil and culture, and the honesty and fidelity of those common people through whose hands it may pass, between the importer and sower. It concluded with praying such relief as the house in its wisdom should think meet; and then was ordered to lie on the table, for the perusal of the members.

BELEAST, April 24, 1772. The Snow Betty Greg, of Belfast, William Scott, master, from Antigua, on Sunday, 2d of May, came through a fleet of 27 sail of French vessels, from 40 to 60 tons burthen, or upwards, about 4 leagues westward of Cape Clear, standing in for the coast of Ireland; they appeared as if loaded when going into the bays, but when coming out, light; he attempted to speak two of them, but when they observed that, they stood to the westward, and then to the southward, in order to avoid coming near him. There were none but light winds, which caused him to see them so long in sight, going in and out from the land.

The Drawing to begin the 29th Instant, in New-York, and under the Inspection of a Number of Gentlemen of Reputation, both in the City of New-York, and in the Counties of Orange and Ulster.

Little need be said to show how advantageous this Scheme is to the Adventurers, as there is little more than one Blank and a Half to a Prize; this, with the Benevolent Purposes to which the Profits arising from this Lottery are to be appropriated, it is hoped will induce the Public to encourage it.

The Prizes will be punctually paid by the Managers then to be appointed, subject to a Deduction of Fifteen per Cent. As soon as the Books are settled by the Managers to be appointed, the fortunate Numbers will be printed in the public News Papers.

Tickets may be had from Messrs. John Anderson, Samuel Loudon, and William Ogilvie, in New-York; Orange County, of John Coe, William Coe, Daniel Evert, Right, and David Fye; Ulster County, of Mr. Abner Druff.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Number of Tickets of the Second New-Castle Lottery, sold in this City, is so inconsiderable, that they will be certainly sold by the First Day of August: And the Sale of the Tickets sent to other Places is so far advanced, that none will be returned for Sale here, after that Day; therefore such as intend to become Adventurers are desired to apply in Time, as it is positively determined to close the Sale here by the first of August.

22,000 Tickets, at 5 Dollars each, are 110,000

Not one blank and three Quarters to a Prize. IT is with sincere Gratitude the United Presbyterian Congregations in the City of New-York, acknowledge the Favours of the Public in filling the late New-Castle Lottery, which is now finished with the greatest Exactness, and it is with great Reluctance this new Scheme is offered to their Friendship; but as the neat Proceeds arising to them from the first Lottery, fall short of their Debt more than One Thousand Pounds, and their old Church stands in Need of Repair, and their new Church not yet finished, it is hoped these pressing Necessities will apologize for their second Application to their Benevolence.

The Presbyterian Congregation in New-York, called Seedling, labour under so heavy a Debt incurred by building their Church, that they must shortly sink under the Weight of it, unless speedily relieved in this or some other Way; and the Congregation in Richmond County has not had the Ordinances of the Gospel administered among them in a stated Way, in the Manner their Conscience directs them to Worship the God of their Fathers, since their first Foundation, nor are they able to support them without considerable Assistance, which is requested in this Method.—These Considerations it is hoped will induce the Benevolent to encourage this new Scheme, which is still more advantageous to the Adventurers than the first, as there is not quite one Blank and three Quarters to a Prize, and the lowest Prizes are double the Value of the Ticket, which may draw Four Thousand One Hundred Dollars.

The following Gentlemen are appointed Managers, who are to be upon Oath for the faithful Discharge of the Trust reposed, viz. George Mowbray, Esq; David Finney, Esq; John Thompson, Esq; Nicholas Van Dyke, Esq; and Mr. Samuel Patterson, all of New-Castle County: And as there are a Number of Gentlemen of extensive Acquaintance and Influence who interest themselves in the Disposal of the Tickets, it is not doubted it will be completed by the first Day of August next, when the Drawing is to begin at the Town of New-Castle.

A List of the fortunate Numbers will either be published in the Boston, Rhode-Island, Connecticut, New-York, Philadelphia, and Charles-Town News-Papers, or carefully sent to those Places; and the Prizes will be paid, subject to a Deduction of Fifteen per Cent. by Messrs. David Vanhook, Nathaniel Hazard, John Murray, William Neilson, Walter Buchanan, John Morton, Samuel Broome, and Co. and John Broome, Merchants in New-York; by Doctor John Cochran, in New-Brunswick; Robert Ogden, Esq; and Mr. John Blanchard, Merchants in Elizabeth-Town; Messrs. Peter Chevalier, John Boyard, and John Mease, Merchants in Philadelphia; and by proper Persons who shall hereafter be appointed, in all the other capital Towns on the Continent.

TICKETS are to be had from the Managers, and from Doctor John M'Kinly, in Wilmington. Orders for Tickets left with any of the above named Gentlemen will be carefully forwarded.

TO BE LET,

And enter'd upon immediately, furnished or unfurnished.

THREE genteel Rooms, one on the first and two on the second Floor, all fronting the Street, with Fire Places in two of them; and a Cellar adjoining: They are fit for a Merchant or Shop-keeper, and may be seen by applying to ABRAHAM COCK, Cooper, next Door to Mr. Jasper Drake, at Beckman's Slip.

TO BE SOLD,

THE farm of the subscriber, lying in the town of New-Burgh, commonly called Mackinack, three quarters of a mile from the church and court-house, containing about 200 acres: part is, and in one season may be made, the best of English mowing ground; on said farm is a dwelling-house, five rooms on a floor, a large orchard of about 200 trees of the best of apples and other fruit, &c. Its natural situation is supposed to exceed any in those parts, and would be very agreeable for a retired life, or advantageous for trade of any sort, having a spacious, clean, bold shore, the only one for near five miles along the west side of Mackinack river; a good grist-mill adjoining on said river, and the two main country roads meeting near the premises. Also to be sold with the above, a lot of meadow along said river, adjoining the landing of William Provost, Esq; with 20 acres of woodland, well stocked with timber. Whoever inclines to purchase the same, may for particulars, enquire on the premises, or of James M'Callister, near the court-house, or the subscriber, (at the bridge, Old-Slip, Cruger's Wharf) who will agree on reasonable terms, and give a good title for the same.

JOHN ROMINE.

FRANCIS LEWIS and Son,

Have brought over with them from England, General Assortment of Goods, suitable for the Season; most of which they purchased immediately from the Manufacturers, and will sell at the most reasonable Terms, at their Store in Queen-Street, near the Fly-Market, lately occupied by Mr. John Morton.

WILLIAM DEANE, Coachmaker,

INFORMS the public in general, and his customers in particular, that he carries on his business as usual, in Broad-Street, where he makes all sorts of coaches, landaus, phaetons, carriages, chairs and chaises; likewise all sorts of harness and saddlery work, as also painting, gilding and japanning in the neatest and most elegant manner.—And as he finishes all carriages whatever in his own shop, without applying to any other, he is likewise determined to make them as good, sell them as cheap, and be as expeditious as there is a possibility; and to convince the public of the truth of what he asserts, he will make any piece of work that is required, equal to any imported from England, and will sell it at the prime cost of that imported, by which means those who are pleased to favour him with their custom will save the freight, insurance, and the expenses naturally attending in putting the carriages to rights after they arrive. And as a further inducement, he will engage his work for a year after it is delivered, that is, if any part gives way or fails by fair usage, he will make it good at his own expense. These advantages cannot be obtained on carriages imported. He has now a considerable stock of the best of all materials fit for making carriages.—For the above reasons, he most humbly requests the encouragement of the public, which will be most gratefully acknowledged by him.

Said DEANE paints and repairs all manner of old work very reasonably; and has for sale, just finished, a new phaeton, and four new chairs.

General Post-Office, New-York, July 8, 1772.

NOTICE is hereby given, that for the commercial Interest of the Inhabitants on both sides of Hudson's River, the Albany Post is order'd to ride alternately on each Side of the said River; setting out from hence to, and returning from Albany one Week on the East Side, and the next Week on the West Side.

By Command of the Deputy Post-Master General, ALEXANDER GOLDEN Sec'y.

WETHERSFIELD.

WHEREAS his present Majesty King George the third, by his letters patent, under the great seal of the province of New-York, hath granted to certain persons therein named, A.L. that certain tract or parcel of land, situate, lying and being on the west side of Connecticut river, in the county of Cumberland, within the province of New-York; beginning on the west bank of Connecticut river, at the south east corner of the township of Windsor, and runs from thence along the southernmost bounds of Windsor, north seventy four degrees west, four hundred and eighty chains; thence south twelve degrees, west four hundred and eighty chains, to a tract of land commonly called and known by the name of Springfield; thence along the northernmost bounds of the last mentioned tract of land, south seventy eight degrees, east four hundred and eighty chains, to Connecticut river; thence northerly along the said river, as it winds and turns, to the southeast corner of Windsor, where this tract first began; containing twenty one thousand and five hundred acres, and the usual allowance for highways, including a tract of five hundred acres of land granted to Lieutenant Thomas Etherington; and containing, including the said tract last mentioned, and four lots granted in trust for public uses, the quantity of twenty three thousand acres, and the usual allowance for highways; and hath erected the same into a township by the name of WETHERSFIELD.

And whereas a grant of the same tract of land was heretofore pretended to be made by a certain instrument, under the great seal of the province of New-Hampshire, unto Gideon Lyman, Esq; Daniel Lyman, Esq; Daniel Lyman, jun. Joseph Little, Medad Lyman, Samuel Miles, Samuel Miles, jun. Enos Allen, James Rice, Joseph Trowbridge, Roswell Woodward, Thomas Trowbridge, Abraham Thompson, jun. Phineas Lyman, Esq; Abraham Thompson, Jacob Thompson, Stephen Allen, Gideon Lyman, jun. James Storey, Sylvanus Bishop, Samuel Bishop, jun. John Mix, John Pierpoint, John Bradley, jun. Phineas Bradley, Elijah Lyman, John Cornwall, Lemuel Hotchkiss, John Nelson, Jonah Bradley, Heskiah Parmalee, jun. John Austin, Israel Munson, Joel Gilbert, Joseph Thompson, Caleb Gilbert, Joseph Dorman, Joseph Wooden, Timothy Porter, Ebenezer Johnson, Selah Wright, Naomi Lyman, John Lyman, jun. Gad Lyman, Benjamin Sheldon, William Cannada, Reuben Wright, Phineas Lyman, Eleazar Burr, Elnathan Wright, Ephraim Wright, jun. Theodore Atkinson, Esq; M. H. Wentworth, Esq; Biddad Wright, Elias Lyman, Nathaniel Phelps, Benning Wentworth, John Wentworth, Esq; John Nelson Merch, H. Hall Wentworth, Witman Clagget, Esq; and Theodore Atkinson, jun.—and to be erected into a township of that province by the name of WETHERSFIELD.—And whereas it is intended that all persons interested in any of the said lands, under the said pretended grant (except as is herein after excepted) should upon the terms and under the provisions herein after mentioned, be enabled to obtain a good title to their several shares and interests therein, under the grant thereof issued under the great seal of the Province of New-York.—PUBLIC NOTICE is therefore hereby given, to all the persons above-mentioned to whom the said pretended grant was originally made as aforesaid; and to all other persons respectively possessed of, or interested in any of the said lands, by, from, or under any of them; that all and singular their several interests respectively, in the said tract of land, under the said pretended grant, shall be confirmed to them respectively, under the said grant thereof made as aforesaid, under the great seal of the province of New-York (except a lot of five hundred acres, granted by his Majesty to the aforesaid Thomas Etherington, and certain lots granted for public uses as aforesaid), provided they apply for the same respectively, to the subscriber, of New-Haven, in the county of New-Haven, in the colony of Connecticut, within one year after this notification, paying to him their respective proportions of all fees, charges, and disbursements, with the lawful interest thereof, which have or shall arise and grow due by reason of the suing out the said letters patent together with the costs and charges of the deeds and conveyances to be made to them respectively.

LITTLE BERN-ISLAND.

To be sold at public Auction, on Wednesday the 23d of September next, at 12 o'clock, at the Merchant's Coffee-House, in the City of New-York;

THAT very valuable Island,

called Little Bern-Island, belonging to the estate of Mr. St. George Talbot, deceased, situate opposite to New-Harlem church, in the out-ward of this city, containing upwards of one hundred acres of land and meadow; the land is very good, and produces excellent grain of all sorts; the orchard abounds with good apples for market or cider, of which fifty barrels may be made yearly; a large quantity of the best of English hay may be annually cut, and an immense quantity of salt hay can be made,—sufficient to supply the whole neighbourhood, who come to take it off the meadows at their own expense: It has a great advantage of manure from the fedge which lodges on the shore, of which hundreds of loads may be taken up, at no expense: It abounds with wild fowl, as ducks, geese, pigeons, quails, &c. in their season, and has the advantage of a fine seine fishery, and black fish, oysters, lobsters, &c. There is on it a large house with four very convenient rooms on a floor, and a large entry, a very good barn, in good repair, a well, and a very fine spring of water, and a house near the landing fit for an overseer; being in the vicinity of New-York, the produce may be brought to the Fly-market with the tide of ebb, and the flood will wait the craft home. This most valuable place, with little expense, may be made an agreeable seat for a gentleman, or a profitable one for a farmer; the purchaser to take possession the 25th day of March next.

On Wednesday the 30th of September next, at 12 o'clock, at the same place, will be sold at public action, that most excellent Farm at King's-Bridge, now in the possession of Mr. Sampson Dyckman, and the meadows thereunto belonging, with the large house, barn, kitchen, and all other improvements; it has a very good garden and orchard with the best of fruit, such as apples, peaches, &c. and is the most frequented and noted house on this island for travellers who pass Prince's-Bridge; it has the advantage of mowing a large quantity of salt hay, &c. in the spring it abounds with most excellent bass, shad and herrings, and crabs and oysters: most part of the year are caught in great abundance; in short it is the most convenient spot for a tavern-keeper to make his fortune in a few years, or any on this island; the purchaser may take possession the first of October next.

Conditions of sale for both the above places, may be seen at JOHN LIVINGSTON'S, in Broad-Street.

New-York, 14th July, 1772.

ROAD LOTTERY.

WHEREAS the drawing of this lottery was appointed to begin the first of this instant July, and the managers not having been informed whether some of the tickets sent to the neighbouring colonies for sale, are disposed of or not; they have therefore thought best to postpone the drawing till the twenty-seventh instant, when it will certainly begin; and as the time is near at hand, it is desired of all persons who have had the disposal of tickets, to make return's without fail by that day.

Some tickets still on hand, may be had at the usual places.

BY virtue of a writ issued out of the court of chancery for this province of New-York, dated the 25th day of June instant, and to me directed, commanding me to make sale of all that certain messuage, or dwelling house, and lot of ground thereto belonging, situate, lying and being in the city of Albany, on the south side of the street commonly called and known by the name of Jonker's-Street, bounded on the west by the house and lot formerly of Peter Van Brough, deceased, then belonging to James Stevenson; on the south by the Lutheran burying ground; on the east by the passage or lane between the said house and ground, and the house and ground late of Colonel John Schuyler, containing in breadth in front and rear 25 foot and 7 inches, and in length on the east side 92 foot 4 inches, and in length on the west side 123 foot and a half, all wood measure. Which said messuage, or dwelling-house, and lot of ground, has by the said writ been decreed to be sold at public vendue, on a bill of complaint, exhibited in the said court by Levinus Clarkson, complainant, against Robert Rogers, defendant, for fore-closing the equity of redemption of the said premises, and to return the monies arising by such sale, into the said court, on the 30th day of January next. This is therefore to give notice, that I shall, in obedience to the said writ, expose to sale the said messuage, or dwelling house, and lot of ground, so decreed to be sold, at public vendue, at the City-Hall of the city of Albany, on the 9th day of January next, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon of the same day. Dated this 25th day of June, 1772.

HENRY TEN EYCK, Jun.
Shrill of the city and county of Albany.
